Join Cornell Club of Washington Today!

by Mary Bowman '87 & Bob Day '56, 2002-2003
Membership Co-Vice Presidents

There are so many reasons to join the 900 other Cornell Alumni who already know about the Cornell Club of Washington (CCW). Some reasons to join include:

Fun

Cornellians know how to work and play hard. Join for friendship and fun.

Networking

Bring your business cards! CCW offers you exclusive opportunities to meet new people in the DC area, and reconnect with old friends.

Programs

CCW is the largest all-volunteer Cornell alumni club. Enthusiastic alumni plan and run every detail of the monthly events. We offer programs that range from museum and embassy tours, to rowing and dragon boating clinics to family picnics! Learn all about our events through our monthly newsletter and our on-line calendar.

Sports

Have fun and stay fit. CCW gets you up to the mountains with our annual hike, onto the river with canoeing on the Potomac, and out to the fields for softball and flag football. Join CCW to cheer on the Big Red in DC with our satellite feeds to Cornell hockey!

Outreach & Community Service

Our Club also offers Cornellians in the National Capital Area opportunities each month to get involved and help make a difference in the community life of the city and the region.

New Student Relations

CCW has a variety of ways that you can reach out to area students: tutor at a local school, represent Cornell at a college fair, meet with prospective students, and attend events to raise scholarship funds.

Stay connected with Cornell through CCW and join us this Fall at one of our events. New to the area? Joining the Membership Committee is a great way to meet other Cornellians in the community. Contact Bob Day dayhaven@starpower.net or Mary Bowman mcb47@cornell.edu for more details.

2002-2003 Programming for CCW Members

by Sheyna Horowitz '99 & Jonathan Simon '92, 2002-2003
Programming Co-Vice Presidents

Each year the Programming Committee strives to offer a wide range of social and cultural events for the entire alumni community. As the largest all-volunteer Cornell alumni club, we pack our events calendar with embassy tours, family picnics, art gallery crawls, noted Cornell speakers, flag football games, and much more. Updates and announcements can be found in the monthly newsletter and on our website. As always, we welcome your participation at the programming meetings, held the second Tuesday of every month at the Cornell Center. To learn more, please contact Sheyna Horowitz (sqh2@cornell.edu) or Jonathan Simon (jds35@cornell.edu).

Major Activities

CCW Connections. This volunteer mentoring program connects experienced DC area Cornellians with other CCW members needing reliable advice with specific job markets, the nature of career paths in selected career fields, and additional career contacts. To volunteer as a mentor, or for further information, contact Vaughn Kirk '85, 703-528-9561 or ccwconnections@aol.com.

Job Bank. This program consists of a database of career openings provided by Cornellians in the DC area. Openings are strongest in technology, but also cover finance, education, consulting, non-profits, and positions on Capital Hill. To add a job to the Bank, or for further information, contact Helen Shimbo '85, 202-965-2499 or KoKo321@hotmail.com.

Community Service. In the coming months, Cornellians will serve in a local DC soup kitchen, clean up the banks of the Anacostia, help World Arts Focus in Mt. Rainier, and volunteer at the National Zoo. To become involved with CCW Community Service, please contact Michelle Johnson '95 (mjohnsondc@yahoo.com) or Suzanne Proctor '99 (sop9@cdc.gov)

Tradition. The Tradition Alumni DC Chapter ("CTADC") continues Tradition's on-campus emphasis of contributing to public life by sponsoring community service events in Greater Washington. Contact Donell Hicks, dahesq@yahoo.com for more information.

Major Activities:

Urbanauts/Retired Alumni. Our retired Big Red alumni tell us that they wish to have Cornell alumni activities during the day and during the week, in addition to the Club's more common evening and weekend times. Please contact Bob Day '56 at dayhaven@starpower.net, or Diana Day '56 at dianaherb@aol.com, both at 301-438-7755, to volunteer or for more information.

Café Philo Philosophy Discussion Group. Café Philo is a program where the participants discuss a predetermined philosophical topic, and meet on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of the month from 1:00 to 3:00pm at Brasserie Las Halles restaurant, 1201 Pennsylvania Avenue NW. Contact Ken Feldman, Moderator, Café Philo in DC, 703-751-5958 or KenFphilo@aol.com.

Techie Hour. The Techie Hour Strategy Team plans to continue these informal programs, focused on start-ups across the technology sector. Contact Helen Shimbo '85, 202-965-2499 or KoKo321@hotmail.com.

Footlights Modern Drama Discussion Group. The Modern Drama Discussion Group is a joint project of the Cornell, Chicago, Harvard, and Stanford alumni clubs of DC, which meets at an inexpensive, Metro-accessible DC-area restaurant to discuss plays from the modern theater, and also obtains discount theater tickets. For more information call David at 202-484-8303 or visit www.footlightsdc.org.

CAAAN. Cornell Alumni Admissions Ambassadors Network (CAAAN) interviews area high school students for admission to Cornell. To volunteer to interview, or to promote Cornell to area high school students, contact Debbie Rutenberg '75, Debbie@adsolution.com, 301-656-4075 (MD/DC), or Samantha Peele, h2oston@yahoo.com, 703-924-3255 (VA).

New Activities for 2002-2003

Entrepreneurship and Personal Enterprise Program/Cornell Entrepreneur Network (EPE/CEN). Cornell University has launched this truly path-breaking educational and networking program which includes the establishment of local EPE groups in major metropolitan areas with entrepreneurial Cornellians. Through a national system of linked websites, the program is specifically designed to bring many kinds of entrepreneurial Cornell alumni together—Engineering, Johnson School, Arts, Hotel, and others—to maximize Big Red entrepreneurial synergy. For further information, contact Chuck Schilke, Law '88, cns7@cornell.edu, 202-244-0150 or Jeff Loren, ENG '75 jrl22@cornell.edu.

Parent/Infant/Toddler Playgroup. Would you like to meet other Cornellians in Greater DC who are at home caring for young children? Why not meet these women (and men) and start a regular gathering where our children can meet and "play" and we can get to know each other? Please contact me, Leslie Topiol Kowalski '88 at LST5@cornell.edu, 202-237-5319 if you are interested.

Nutrition Series. Through the generosity of Elizabeth Hill, a 2000 Human Ecology nutrition graduate, the Club presents a 3-part nutrition series. (1) "Functional Foods" explores nutritious foods that have additional benefits. (2) "Healthy Heart" considers eating for long-term health, and (3) "Sports Nutrition" discusses the crucial components of the athlete's diet. Contact Sheyna Horowitz '99, sqh2@cornell.edu, 202-777-5797.

Young Alumni. The possibilities for young alumni events are limited only by the virtually limitless imagination of Cornell young alumni themselves. To volunteer or for more information, please contact Gabriela Cadena '99, ggc2@cornell.edu, 301-439-6591; or Joyce Nicholas '02, jmn34@cornell.edu.

Our New Alumni Listserv. This list will be a forum to share leads on jobs, apartments, resources and more! For questions about the listserv, please contact the list manager, Amanda Stevenson, at amanda_stevenson@yahoo.com. To subscribe, send an e-mail with no subject to listproc@cornell.edu. In the body put the following (replacing Jane Doe with your name):
subscribe CU-Alums-DC-L JANE DOE

Attention Sports Fans and Athletes!

For the fans, who prefer to watch the action from the sidelines with the company of fellow alumni, we offer:

- a trip to the races at Virginia Gold Cup,
- gatherings to watch the Big Red via satellite at a local pub, and
- discount offers for Washington Capitals hockey tickets and DC United and Washington Freedom soccer games.

For the athletes, CCW does everything from a day of:

- hiking, biking, skating,
- canoeing and rowing, to

- an entire season of competition on the gridiron & ball diamond to determine which local alumni club earns the year's bragging rights on the field and at the bar.

Volunteers and sponsors provide the resources that make sporting events available to Cornell students and alumni. Club members can learn more about the Alumni Sports Seasons at www.dcalum.org. Contact the coaches at CAN_Cornell@yahoo.com to join the team in the next trophy run.

Resources

In addition to suggestions for activities and commitments to volunteering, CCW's Activities Committee requests that interested Club members provide information about resources of value to the Committee that members may have available. Resources of this type make a substantial contribution to maintaining and enhancing the excellence of the Club, and may include employment in organizations or membership in other clubs that offer access to meeting space, particularly in downtown Washington; contacts with particularly distinguished Cornell alumni and others who might be willing to present programs to the Club, particularly those in public service, think-tanks, universities, etc.; contacts with distinguished faculty and others in Ithaca; special access to unusual facilities not normally available to others, such as embassies; and knowledge of organizations that might be interested in co-sponsoring events with CCW; or other potentially valuable resources.

Please describe resources potentially available to the Programming Committee here:
