Are you eager to return to the old days of socializing on the hill above Cayuga's waters? Zinck's Night is the largest CCW event of the year, bringing together over 200 alums who are young and/or young at heart. Whether you are new to the area or have lived here for many years, Zinck's Night is the place for you to connect with old friends, meet some new ones, and network in a relaxed and fun environment. All Cornellians and their guests are welcome.

Zinck's 2004 is being held at Ireland's Four Provinces (The 4Ps) in Cleveland Park. Beginning at 5:45 p.m. with beer specials, food, raffles and maybe a surprise or two.

Directions: The 4Ps is located at 3412 Connecticut Avenue NW, one block away from the Red Line's Cleveland Park Metro, and right next to the Uptown Theater.

Cost: $5 for CCW Members. Not a member? You can sign up at Zincks; otherwise, $10. For more information or to RSVP, please contact Lauren Myers-Marion 301/717-4383 or LM32@cornell.edu, Joyce Nicholas at JNchls202@aol.com or Andrew Stifel at aps34@cornell.edu. Cornell Bus Trips Help Recruit Students

If you know a high school senior thinking of applying to Cornell (or who you'd like to see go to your alma mater), tell them about a two-day field trip for high school seniors interested in visiting the Cornell campus, sponsored by the Metropolitan Washington area's Cornell Alumni Admissions Ambassador Network (CAAAN). Included in the trip is a tour of the campus, admissions presentations, classes and free time to explore.

Two bus trips have been scheduled, both Sunday through Monday: October 31 - November 1 and November 14 - 15. Buses leave from Montgomery Mall in Bethesda at 7:15 a.m. and return the following evening to the same place around 8:30 p.m. Housing will be provided by Cornell (at no additional charge) in freshman dorms. The cost is $85.00 for the bus and for Sunday night dinner. Checks should be made out to the Cornell Club of Washington and sent to Grace Morgenstein, 11201 Tack House Court, Potomac, MD 20854.

In past years, buses have filled early, and students have been turned away, so early reservations are recommended. Any student interested must fill out a medical insurance form and have it signed by a parent or guardian. For information, medical release forms and registration questions, please contact Grace Morgenstein at 301/983-8552 or at gmm11@cornell.edu

Techie Hour: Rise up + Flee your Cubicle

Fall panel theme: Overseas Outsourcing, Backlash?

Techie Hour continues to be the only engineering-science event for alumni on the East coast. The panel series, now up to Release 5.0, is based on a business plan that was sent to 32 global "Cornell" cities. From Boston/NYC/Philadelphia/Washington region, nearly 700 new alumni have learned about topics advancing the Internet world. (At events, every other chair is filled with a CEO/president/company founder.) This crowd represents new faces, as over 97% have not attended alumni events until Techie Hour.

We are the first alumni team to collect business cards for data-driven White papers (online); also, we successfully promote corporate sponsorship. Our last event was standing room only, and we're the first Cornell group (globally) to use an online survey from a Cornell-based firm, Elliance.com. Founded by techies from an all-Asian team, we expanded to Venezuelan, Nigerian, Lebanese, Silver Spring (!), and Indian engineering Whiz Kids.

Questions? See www.techiehour.com or contact techie.hour@gmail.com

Old Rag Hike: 32 on XXXVIII

On Saturday, Sept. 11, 32 intrepid Cornell alums and friends undertook the famous semiannual Old Rag Hike, including two retired US Marine Corps field officers. (Huah.) For some odd reason, perhaps misalignment of planets (or lack of sleep from a major paper due late that week), no Cornell-in-Washington students came along this time for the 38th Old Rag Hike.

It had rained a few days before the Hike, but we found the rocks largely dry and welcoming to our shoe treads. It was beautiful and sunny outside in the upper 70s/low 80s, with just a wisp of humidity in the air.

As usual, many thanks to alums and friends who came prepared to transport the students, but who got to carpool (and sleep) instead. Most importantly, heartiest congratulations go to Bob McKinless '48, who completed the entire hike after recovering from a bicycle injury. Virginia Governor Mark Warner was on hand to christen Bob "Honorary Virginia Mountain Goat" in celebration. Next hike in April 2005 to welcome spring. Be there.

10 Financial Mistakes to Avoid

Wed., Sept. 29, 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Bethesda, MD

CCW invites you to attend a free presentation, "Ten Financial Mistakes to Avoid", by Mehmood Nathani (CFA, MBA '85), owner and founder of Altius Financial Advisors in Bethesda (www.altiusfin.com). This one-hour presentation, intended for all audiences from recent graduates to retirees, will be followed by a Q&A session and refreshments. Advance reservations are required as seating is limited. Call Mehmood at 301/961-1585 or email mnathani@altiusfin.com, including your name and contact information. Directions will be sent to confirmed attendees via e-mail.
