Welcome New Life Member!

No. 253 Leona Chen '98 MBA

The Club's life membership program, established in 1985, is an excellent way to maintain your membership in the Club, and at the same time significantly benefit the Club's scholarship efforts. Life membership fees are invested, and the resulting income is added to the Club's operating budget in lieu of annual dues. When a life member leaves the area, the initial fee is transferred to the Club's Scholarship Fund.

Roving Reporter: Claire Ackerman '01 Pre-Reunion Reception

WASHINGTON, April 27 — The Pre-Reunion Reception at the University Club was a success! Whether it was their reunion year or not, alumni and friends gathered to socialize with old and new friends. Forty Cornellians ranging from the Class of 2006 all the way back to the Class of 1936 enjoyed an evening of drinks and hors d'oeuvres. One big topic of conversation of course was reunion weekend, June 8 - 11. Many attendees also took advantage of reunion registration information available at the event. Special thanks to those classes and individuals who helped make the reception a success.

Roving Reporter: Jane Terrell '02 Hands On DC

WASHINGTON, April 29 — The All-Ivy event was a huge success! Thanks to all who came out to improve the learning environment of Birney Elementary School in Anacostia. Cornell alumni joined those from Harvard, Brown, Yale and Princeton to paint and clean the classrooms, hallways, and bathrooms of a school desperately in need of a makeover.

CCW volunteers diligently scrubbed, scraped and taped all surfaces before giving three bathrooms walls fresh coats of paint. We shared a pizza lunch with the other Ivy Schools while the school's principal and superintendent made speeches (our own Bob Day also spoke on the history of the Birney School). As the principal recalled, last year on the Monday after Hands on DC came through one child asked him whether angels had been there. This year the principal told students that the angels were coming back.

Special thanks to all volunteers: Amy Billing '04, Allison Cook '04, Omari Davis '03, Bob Day '56, Rich Hung '91, Joe James '03, Kim Jones '98, Rose Kwok '02, Craig Lowenthal '03, Sandra Paredes '02, Brian Ruhl '94, Kimberly Wong '05

If you are interested in organizing or participating in a community service event with CCW, please contact Jane Terrell, Community Service Chair, 202.316.4256 janesterrell@hotmail.com.

Cornell's Alumni Admissions Ambassador Network (CAAN) Receptions are a Tremendous Success!

Hundreds of prospective and newly accepted students attended one of the five receptions and/or information sessions we hosted in the past two months. These events were great opportunities for students to ask questions about academics and campus life, hear from current students and recent alumni, and meet other newly accepted students.

This year we hosted a Newly Accepted Underrepresented Minority Students Reception. Thanks to Marc Duber, executive Vice-President of The Bernstein Companies and father of Brant '08 for donating the event space and refreshments. The reception was attended by about 50 students and their parents. Current students, recent grads and older alumni addressed the students and gave the prospective Cornellians a good idea about life at Cornell and specifically from a vantage point of life in a multi-cultural environment.

Roving Reporter: Clint Brass '90 Old Rag XLI

SPERRYVILLE, VA, May 6 — What a spectacular day to hike Old Rag! Thirty-five alumni and friends, plus 5 Cornell-in-Washington students, ascended Old Rag Mountain in Shenandoah National Park, near Sperryville, VA. Walking under the verdant foliage in the upper 60s and basking in warm sunshine, the group conquered the challenging 3,268' summit to take in the Blue Ridge Mountains as they were meant to be seen.

Many thanks to the participants who transported students and other alums: Paul Coelus '80, Mona Shah '99, Josh Novikoff '03, Mark Schneider '93, Matt Hirschtritt '05, Clint Brass '90, and others. Grateful thanks especially to Bob McKinless '48 for organizing. Old Rag XLII comes in September, so start training, and watch for the announcement in the September issue of CCW News.

Roving Reporter: Adriano Sabatelli '95 Faculty Speaker: Professor Theodore Lowi

WASHINGTON, April 18 — Over 85 alumni turned out to hear Professor Lowi discuss the state of our republic in a lecture entitled "Bend Sinister: Searching for the Next American Republic."

Over 85 local alumni came to hear Professor Lowi discussed the State of Our Republic entitled, "Bend Sinister: Searching for the Next American Republic. Professor Lowi discussed how the American Republic has gone through a series of transformations throughout its history. The alumni in attendance heard Professor Lowi's sharp wit and delighted in his ability to answer and challenge the audience's various questions.

Annual Dinner and Silent Auction

WASHINGTON, May 16 — Seventy-five Cornell alumni and friends filled Old Europe Restaurant for the Club's Annual Dinner and Silent Auction. The auction raised over $2,400 for the CCW Scholarship Fund, and bidders took home treasures ranging from an Ocean City getaway to an autographed Wizards basketball.

The well-appointed space and delicious German fare lent a warm atmosphere to the event. Many steins of German beer were raised, and 5 delicious entrees and apple strudel were savored. After dinner, Peter Larson, '70, former Redskin and current real estate executive gave a wonderful talk about the importance Cornell has had in his life.

Jonathan Simon, '92, current CCW president presided over the evening's festivities. The dinner provided the Club the opportunity to reflect on a successful year as we look forward to the 2006-2007 calendar. New CCW board members for the 2006-2007 year were elected.

The Best Program award was presented to Chuck Schilke '88 Law for the remarkable United States Botanic Garden event last October. Chuck was also awarded the Bondareff Award, named for Esther Schiff Bondareff '37 and her late husband, Daniel Bondareff '36, in recognition of his years of outstanding and dedicated service to the Club.

As always, we thanked outgoing board members for their dedicated service and voted in a talented new slate. Thank you to everyone that volunteered their time, donated auction items, and attended this special, delicious event. Planning is already underway to find a 2007 venue with character to match Old Europe. We'll see you there!

The Cornell Club of Washington would like to thank the following people and companies for donating items to the silent auction:
